
Converging to Meet Information Literacy Competencies

Heather Healy, Heather Collins,
Julie Hartwell & Rachel Vukas

About the Project

- Consortial collaboration creating online lessons
- Literacies needed for academic success & lifelong learning
- Lessons based on ACRL Framework for Information Literacy
- Evidence-based practice lessons in the works

Open Access

- Creative Commons licensed
- Everyone can use them
- Scoring—individual instances of lessons or embedding in LMS
- Accessibility and mobile compliant

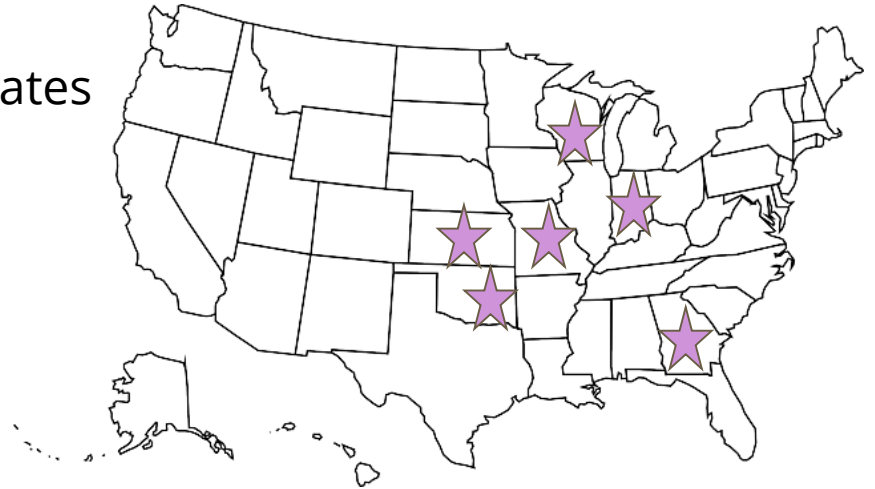

Contact us if you're interested in using the lessons for your library instruction!

Image by Creative Commons is licensed under CC-BY

Consortial Collaboration

- Librarians from 10 universities in 6 states
 - University of Kansas Medical Center
 - Washington University in St. Louis
 - University of Missouri-Kansas City
 - Kansas State University
 - Indiana University
 - Marquette University
 - University of Wisconsin-Platteville
 - Oklahoma State University
 - University of West Georgia
 - Fort Hays State University

ClickerFreeVectorImages/Pixabay CCO

- Roles: sponsors, instructional designers, graphic artists, content creators

Contact us if you're interested in participating in lesson creation!

Process for Lesson Creation

OpenClipartVectors/Pixabay CC0

Semester launch meetings

- In person & Zoom (video conferencing)
- Topeka & Shawnee County Public Library (Topeka, KS)

Drafting

- Small group online meetings
- Google docs brainstorming & collaboration

Rapid prototyping

- Functional lesson drafts
- Several test rounds with students

Guidelines

- Copyediting
- Style Guide for lesson development

Explore NLA Lessons

<http://guides.lib.k-state.edu/nla>

New website coming soon:
newliteraciesalliance.org

Finished Lessons

- Access Matters
 - Question Authority
 - Value of Information
 - Ask the Right Questions
 - Scholarly Conversations
 - Types of Information
 - Search Strategies
 - Choosing Information Paths
 - Email Etiquette
 - Data, Information, Knowledge, Wisdom
-

Scholarly Conversations

Lesson In Action

University of Kansas Medical Center

NURS 327

Communicating and
Managing Healthcare
Information

About the Course

- BSN program
 - Flipped classroom
 - Concept-based curriculum
 - Information literacy concepts
 - Blackboard LMS
 - Previously static quizzes & paper
-

University of Kansas Medical Center

HEIM 501 Information Resources for Health Professions

About the Course

- Online course in Blackboard
 - Required course
 - Course units taught by different instructors
 - 4-wk info literacy unit
 - Previously YouTube videos
-

Kansas State University

Human Ecology Courses

Course Applications

- KIN 220 Biobehavioral Basis of Physical Activity
 - FNDH 320 Care and Prevention of Athletic Injuries
-

Questions?

Heather Healy

heather-healy@uiowa.edu

Heather Collins

hcollins@kumc.edu

Fotomek/Pixabay CC0