

Annual Meeting Grant Application Information

Overview

The Midwest Chapter/MLA Annual Meeting Grant supports the attendance of librarians and library staff at the Midwest Chapter/MLA annual meeting. The grant includes a free full conference registration and $500 for one recipient.

Eligibility/Applicant Criteria

- Member of the Midwest Chapter/MLA
- Not eligible for the Student Annual Meeting Grant (library school students) or the First-Time Attendee Grant (first-time attendees)
- Have not received a Midwest Chapter award supporting meeting attendance within the past three years
- Application letter describing financial need and what the applicant expects to gain professionally and personally from attending the meeting

Priority consideration criteria (desired, not required):

- Currently employed in a health sciences library
- Rural/isolated librarian
- Solo librarian
- Applicant is presenting (or has submitted) a paper or a poster at the meeting
- Applicant has committee assignments
- Travel distance/costs

Application Requirements

Applications must include:

- A completed application form
- A current resume or vitae
- A letter from a manager or administrator supporting the applicant's need for financial aid due to lack of institutional funds for travel or professional development. Exception: This requirement is waived for applicants who are not currently employed and should be noted in cover letter (see below)
- An application letter describing why the applicant is interested in and hopes to gain by attending the Chapter meeting

Applications must be received by June 25
